

A New Method of Baking Cakes

Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the baking expert, says:

"There is just one way to make your cakes rise high and evenly—give them time to rise before a crust is formed and the batter is stiffened by cooking."

"If using a gas, gasoline or oil stove, light your oven when you put the cake in and keep the flame low until the cake has doubled in bulk; then increase the heat until it is evenly browned and will respond to the pressure of the finger. If using a coal or wood range, leave the oven door open until the cake is in; then turn on the drafts and by the time the oven is at baking temperature, the cake will have risen sufficiently."

For rich, moist, feathery cakes Mrs. Briggs always recommends

K.C. BAKING POWDER

It is double acting and sustains the raise. You can open and close the oven door, turn the tin around in the oven or do anything else necessary, without any danger of making the cake fall.

Try your favorite cake next time with K.C. Baking Powder and see how much higher it will rise. Make it just as you always do, with the same quantity of baking powder. While K.C. is less expensive than the old-fashioned baking powders, it has even greater leavening strength and it is guaranteed pure and healthful.

DOUBLE RECITAL AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC

School of Music Presents Celestine Phillips and Hazel Harvey

Another splendid recital was presented at the Arizona School of Music last evening when Mrs. Shirley Christy presented Celestine Phillips and Hazel Harvey in a piano and vocal recital. Both young ladies are pupils of Evans Darnes, head of the piano department and Miss Phillips was a pupil of Mrs. Cronwell Stacey who was of the vocal department until her departure for Illinois. Miss Phillips played her piano numbers brilliantly and with much musical taste she is also the possessor of a fine soprano voice and sings with much feeling and musical understanding.

Mrs. Harvey proved herself a very gifted pianist playing the difficult Beethoven Sonata op 21 with true musical taste leading herself to the different moods with the ease of an artist. Miss Harvey also proved to be a very sympathetic accompanist. The recital was a very interesting one and was played in such a way as to reflect much credit on the school as well as their teachers.

Long passed the recent bar examination but was not present when the new attorneys were admitted to the bar. LOOKING THINGS OVER—William Bernard of Los Angeles, representing the Metro Picture Corporation arrived in Phoenix yesterday and is calling on theatre managers in the interest of his company.

MORE RECRUITS JOINING COLORS

From Unofficial Reports, It Appears That Full Quota of Men Will Be Raised Within a Few Weeks. Men Leaving Every Day

Indications that the First Regiment Arizona Volunteer Infantry will soon be recruited to full strength of 1500 men, have started to come into Adjutant General Harris' office.

From reports he has received from all over the state it will be but a short time, providing the same spirit which has moved those who have enlisted up to date, continues to manifest itself for a few days.

A detachment of twenty recruits under the charge of Sergeant George Curran left last evening for the camp at Douglas. A good-sized ovation was given the men as they trudged toward the train in civilian clothes, each one carrying a bundle of personal effects under his arm, and presenting anything but a military appearance.

About forty more men came in from the north last night over the Santa Fe, and will leave this evening for Douglas.

No official reports have been received from Colonel Tullith at the adjutant general's office. Harris has been much in the dark regarding the movements of the troops on the border as any one else in the city. He has been bending every effort to get recruiting operations under way. As soon as he gets things moving and running smoothly he will probably make an official visit to the camp at Douglas.

The colonel was slightly amused yesterday and not a little surprised at receiving a volume of blank forms to be used in recruiting the troops and mobilizing them. They had been published on April 3 and sent to Harris too late to be used as the regiment happened to be in camp several days before the blanks arrived.

Up to last night no man had returned from the camp, thus giving evidence that none of the troops had been discharged for physical disability. It is expected, though, that within a few days rejected men will start to come in. It is probable that those of the men who are let out for that reason will be shifted into what is called a "physical squad," and an effort made by regular army officers to run them through a course of training which will correct their physical faults.

LAWN FETE OF COUNTRY CLUB

Chalmers' Lawn Scene of Pretty Entertainment Tonight: "Peggy Green" Center of Attraction, Dancing and Circus

All is in readiness for the Country Club Carnival to be held on the Chalmers lawn this evening. The beautiful grounds that surround the residence will glitter with hundreds of lights that will beckon merry-makers to the most unique and altogether delightful festivity that has ever been given here.

The big spectacular feature will be "Peggy Green," a pantomime in two scenes adapted from Selby's farce by Mrs. Ernest W. Bennett who will be seen in the name part. Peggy Green, a milliner from the city, believing her lover, Roberly, to be false, has broken her engagement, left her friends and work, and has been for a few weeks at her aunt's farm in quiet solitude, which is broken on May Day by a fete of the villagers.

Being a coquette Peggy flirts with the farm boy, Nicholas, who has fallen desperately in love. Disavowal of her presence on the farm, some of her milliner friends, on a May Day outing, happen on the scene, later in the day her lover and his friend, Tipples, also on an outing, come to the farm, not knowing Peggy is there.

She decides to punish Roberly by flirting with Tipples. Then arrangements to have Nicholas pass her off as his wife.

How these complications are eventually straightened out, will, we hope, be made clear to the audience.

The cast includes:

Peggy Green—Mrs. Ernest W. Bennett
Mrs. Clover, her aunt (a farmer's wife)—Mrs. Dan Francis
Nicholas (a plowboy)—Mr. Sidney J. Ross

Mr. Ed Roberly (in lawyer's clerk)—Mr. Arthur Hale
Mr. Thomas Tipples (a golden calf)—Mr. Jack Westervelt

Merry Villagers
Under the direction of Miss Mae Hurley.

Clown Dancers:—Margaret Hall, Alice Hall, Easter Williams, Gladys Williams, Emma Hackworth, Aline Dawell, Helen Robertson.

Minstrels
Led by Mrs. Charles MacArthur.
Mrs. Sidney J. Ross, Mrs. Joseph Green, Messrs. Byron, Pope, Trent, Rice, Gardner and Myers.

This will be but one of the clever features planned for the enjoyment of the public. There will be numerous side shows that will rival the Panama-Pacific Exposition Joy Zone. Lester Byron has arranged many novel attractions and has clever assistants.

A dance pavilion has been erected especially for the occasion and Aaron Goldberg will be in charge.

Mrs. Aaron Goldberg and Mrs. David Goldberg will preside over a refreshment booth and the entertainment committee of the Country Club will be there to see that everyone is having the time of his life.

WRIGHT WILL FORM MACHINE COMPANY

Local Man Former Regular Will Organize Machine Gun Company to Aid in Fight on Border

Fred J. Wright, of the Huntsman-Hotch company, a former newspaper correspondent in Mexico for the International News Service, and a former member of the regular army, called upon Gov. Hunt and Adjutant General Harris yesterday and asked for their support in the forming of a machine gun platoon to be added to the First Arizona Regiment.

The governor and adjutant general were enthusiastic over Wright's proposition and informed him he could have all the official backing necessary. Wright has taken the common sense plan of forming his company first and then asking for the equipment. Up to last night he had succeeded in enlisting 28 men, 18 of whom are ex-regulars, and 6 of whom have either served in the militia or attended military schools.

Wright needs about 40 more men. In an interview last night he stated that he did not want inexperienced men, but wanted to recruit men who have had service, preferably in the regular army.

Wright detailed his plan of action as follows. He is going to form the company, then Adjutant General Harris will secure the six guns necessary and the equipment. The company will not go to the border to do border patrol but will hold itself in readiness to join the regiment in case of a bad outbreak on the border. Wright explained last night that there was nothing more tiresome and tedious than border patrol, and as long as the men whom he had secured were all possessed of good positions they did not feel like going to the border at once. But he explained in case of war, he would have a company of experienced and trained men ready to go to the front in twelve hours.

Wright to join his company, either call and see him at the Huntsman-Hotch company on North Central avenue or see Dan Massie at the Arizona Cigar store.

ROMAN KRAMER IN STATE JOB

Assistant United States Attorney Made Successor to Assistant Attorney General Hardy: Is Well Known Young Attorney

From the office of the United States attorney to that of the Arizona general of Arizona is the jump that Roman Kramer made as a result of an agreement reached at a conference yesterday. Kramer, who has been assistant to U. S. Attorney Tom Flynn, will succeed Leslie T. Hardy as assistant to Attorney General Wiley Jones.

Kramer is one of the better known young lawyers of Arizona. He first became well known as secretary to Mr. Flynn, immediately upon the latter's appointment as U. S. attorney. Later, he became private secretary to Judge W. H. Sawtelle, and only this year was added to Flynn's force on the resignation of Gerald Jones, to enter private law practice at Tucson.

Several days ago, when he learned of the determination of Mr. Hardy to withdraw from the office to become a partner of the firm of Ellsworth and Ross of Bisbee, Attorney General Jones tendered the appointment to Kramer. The latter's acceptance was the result of the conference yesterday noon, and the announcement was made forthwith.

Kramer was honored by the Knights of Columbus of this state at the annual meeting in Tucson last week, with the position of state deputy.

VERDE COMB'N CO. DULY ORGANIZED

(Special to The Republican.)

JEROME, Ariz., May 14.—The Verde Combination Copper Co., organized by James M. Layman, has completed organization preliminaries and announces the offering of preorganization stock.

20,000 shares will be sold at $50 per share and $100,000 at $50 per share. The Verde Combination holdings to date include about 500 acres of what is considered some of the best close in ground of the district. The large group of the combination starts in with the Mesquit group which joins the South end of the Verde Extension mine and lies about half a mile southeast of the main works of the United Verde mine, extending south and east to the Green Monster property and west to the Pittsburg-Jerome covering over 1000 acres.

The Verde Combination controls a larger acreage than most of the companies now active in the Verde district, as the Verde holdings are only 50 to 100 acres in extent. The groups included above played a part in the mining operations of the district during years past, as probably upward of half a million dollars has been spent upon development work at different times by former owners, uncovering certain promising showings which have proved attractive to the recent purchasers of the properties.

Among the men associated with Mr. Layman in the organization of the new company are influential and experienced men of both east and west many of them interested in Arizona and thoroughly familiar with conditions and opportunities in the copper mining industry. The swinging of the latest favorable attention, as some of the best part of the field is included in the merger of the different properties comprising its holdings. Mr. Layman knows good indications when he sees them and is thoroughly familiar with the Jerome ground, having been closely connected with the district in a mining way for several years.

Others whose names appear in the organization of the company as substantial subscribers are, J. C. Callahan of Phoenix, state auditor; Joseph E. Currey of Bisbee, and others from the same place, mining men of prominence also from Ray, Douglas, Globe, Maricopa and Phoenix.

Fred S. Stephen of Dundee, Scotland, the principal owner of the Dundee-Arizona, A. A. Lappe of the firm of Lappe & Vilks, members of the Pittsburg stock exchange; John S. Eberhart of the firm of Crawford and Eberhart, bankers of Pittsburg; A. C. Wertengel, of the Pittsburg stock exchange; Wm. J. Citteredon, son-in-law of the Olivers, heavy owners in the Calumet & Arizona; W. B. Duly and C. L. Berrien, Supt. and assistant superintendent, respectively of the Anaconda Copper properties, are also interested in the Verde Combination, and on a trip of inspection here last week were much impressed with the possibilities of the properties included in the merger.

The list further includes the names of D. N. Richards an insurance broker of Pittsburg and Peter Boyd, General superintendent of the National Trust Works of Pittsburg; A. G. Barnett of the Diamond National Bank; A. S. List, a banker of Wheeling, W. Va.; J. J. Fisher, a large oil producer; John C. Slack of the Fidelity and Trust Co. of Pittsburg; J. W. Renner, comptroller of the Pennsylvania Railroad; West of Pittsburg; W. D. Flannigan of the West End Bank of Pittsburg; Mrs. Amelia B. Oliver of Pittsburg and H. B. Staver, prominent business man of Auburn Park, Ill. and Chas. Diesel, general manager of the Mines Co. of America, in Sonora.

There are hundreds of people all over the state and around Jerome who are very much interested in the Verde Combination Copper Co., and will look forward with great interest to its development.

MOTORS FOR ROAD WORK

Delegates to Good Roads Meeting Learn About Use of Trucks in Construction: Two Types of Trucks Shown

If any delegates to the Arizona Good Roads Association meeting had doubts as to the ability of machinery to predominate over the stubborn earth, they had them dispelled at the conference yesterday. Kramer, who has been assistant to U. S. Attorney Tom Flynn, will succeed Leslie T. Hardy as assistant to Attorney General Wiley Jones.
